

Robert F. Hutton III

FILE #34730

*style and grace
are the key to this man's heart!*

I am the ultimate accessory.

Being a cat of discerning taste, not just any human would have done. But in Robert, I have adopted a person of—I daresay—near feline intelligence and refinement. I am being earnest in declaring my absolute delight with him!

Whether by instinct or some higher reasoning ability, my human recognizes the proper order and eagerly sees to my every comfort. Though I am not apt to wantonly dispense affection, I confess to a purr arising the instant my dear Robert enters the room.

*Enchanting!
Mister Friskry*

other girl

It's well known, cats are chick magnets

First I get her attention, then smiling Johnny comes on with his 'charm,' and suddenly my boy has another name in his little black book.

Hard to believe, but before I came along, the only dates Johnny ever had was with his swimsuit calendar. But now with me as his wingman, Johnny's definitely got game.

And if he ever settles on just one lady, I might eventually have someone around who'll do a better job of changing my litter box.

THE SNEAGER FAMILY

the nerd

the brat

the ham

the "prodigy"

this family is in desperate need of a cool cat!

This family really needed me.

It's OK, I'm cool enough for all of us. Though they did test my patience by putting a sweater on me. What I wouldn't give for opposable thumbs so I could shed this thing!

And just because my tail is naturally short, did the boy have to name me "Stumpy?" I'm 100% pure Bobtail, not some carnival sideshow!

Yeah, the Sneagers do seem hopeless, but you know what? I'll get them straightened out eventually ... and until then, they're really a lovable bunch in their own pathetic kind of way.

Margaret Stevens

whoever adopts
this woman needs
to provide extra TLC!

Companionship in exchange for tuna.

Really, what could be better than lounging about for hours on end, knowing I'll always have three square meals and bowl of cool, fresh water? And I owe it all to my adopted human, Margaret.

Some cats go for the younger humans, but not me. Older ones like Margaret know what's important, like a good brushing or the best brand of cat food. No dry kibble in this little stretch of heaven!

Oh, gotta go! It's time for our stories and I see a lap with my name on it!
